Malta Chamber delegation meets President of Malta

President Perit David Xuereb, together with the newly elected Board of Management of the Malta Chamber met with the President of the Malta, His Excellency Dr George Vella on Thursday.

During the courtesy visit which took place at the President's Palace in Valletta, Perit Xuereb shared the Chamber's ambitions for the coming years with the Head of State.

While congratulating Dr Vella on his appointment, the President of the Chamber promised the organisation's support and cooperation to his priorities and future endeavours. Mr Xuereb noted how the Malta Chamber has consistently collaborated very closely with every President of Malta, and has taken an active role, even on the international stage, to support relevant and sustainable business networking initiatives piloted by the office of the President.

Mr Xuereb said that the President enjoyed the respect of the whole business community and augured a fruitful relationship in the future, for the benefit of all of Malta's society.

For the delegation, Perit Xuereb was flanked by the Board of Management of the Chamber, namely Marisa Xuereb (Deputy President), Mr Hugh Arrigo (Vice-President), Mr Frank V. Farrugia (Vice-President), Ms Liz Barbaro Sant, Mr Andrew W.J. Mamo, and Mr Matthias Fauser.
