The Malta Chamber and Creditinfo Malta Ltd Sign Bronze Collaboration Alliance

The Malta Chamber of Commerce, Enterprise and Industry signed a Bronze Collaboration agreement with Creditinfo Malta Ltd, aimed at enhancing efforts related to corporate governance. Creditinfo Malta will be paired with The Malta Chamber's Corporate Governance Committee.

"The aim of the committee is to develop The Malta Chamber's policy in key areas related to corporate governance, integrity and ethical business, all key principles of The Malta Chamber," says Marisa Xuereb, President of The Malta Chamber.

"We are honoured to be partnering up with business champions such as Creditinfo Malta Ltd who share the same principles as we do, especially in terms of corporate governance, integrity and ethical business," she continued.

Creditinfo Malta Ltd CEO, Clifford Debono, said "We are looking forward to work hand-in-hand with The Malta Chamber of Commerce to develop key areas and core principles in the promotion of good governance. Creditinfo Malta has been a long-standing supporter of The Malta Chamber and is delighted to be getting behind it as a Bronze Sponsor. Our support to the Chamber's Corporate Governance Committee confirms our belief in the importance of corporate good governance, as this is concerned with holding the balance between economic and social goals and between individual and communal goals."

The agreement was signed by President Ms Marisa Xuereb and Deputy President, Mr Chris Vassallo Cesareo on behalf of The Malta Chamber and CEO Mr Clifford Debono for Creditinfo Malta Ltd.
